Maven Ventures is the leading VC firm investing in seed-stage consumer software companies led by exceptional founders with a “vision worth fighting for” in billion-dollar markets.

Hi [REDACTED] thanks for reaching out. I have a few questions.

Where are you based? Are you the only founder / do you have cofounders?

Could you share a bit about the competitive landscape - I know [REDACTED], and have met a startup or two in the past doing this (didn't invest so not sure what happened to them)

If you have a deck you can share that would be great.

Thanks,
Sara
